Our Doctrinal Statement

Williams Baptist University is owned and operated by the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, through a Board of Trustees elected by the Convention. The following is our doctrinal statement: WE BELIEVE that there is one God, manifest in three eternal persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit;

WE BELIEVE that Jesus is the Son of God, was born of a virgin, was wholly God and wholly man, lived a sinless life, died as a substitutionary sacrifice for the sins of mankind, was buried, arose bodily from the grave and ascended into Heaven;

WE BELIEVE in the literal, imminent return of Jesus Christ to earth;

WE BELIEVE that the Bible is the Word of God without any error, the sole authority for life;

WE BELIEVE that man is a special creation of God, made in his image;

WE BELIEVE that mankind fell through the sin of the first man, Adam, and that all men are sinners in need of salvation;

WE BELIEVE that salvation is a gift given through repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ;

WE BELIEVE that every person who truly is saved is eternally secure in the Lord Jesus Christ;

WE BELIEVE that those persons who die in their sins spend eternity in Hell and those persons who die with their sins forgiven spend eternity in Heaven;

WE BELIEVE that baptism is in obedience to the command of Christ and is by immersion after salvation;

WE BELIEVE that the church is a local body of baptized believers with the Lord Jesus Christ as the head;

WE BELIEVE that each believer has direct access to God through the Lord Jesus Christ;

WE BELIEVE in the separation of church and state, but not in the separation of God and government.

Our History

In 1936, during the bleak days of the Great Depression, Dr. H. E. Watters, former President of Georgetown College in Kentucky and Union University in Tennessee, made a heroic but futile effort to re-open Jonesboro Baptist College in Jonesboro, Arkansas. The Jonesboro school succumbed to financial exigencies in the early 1930s after only a few years of life. Jonesboro Baptist College had not been the first Baptist educational venture in Northeastern Arkansas. In 1899, Baptists established the Maynard Baptist Academy in Randolph County, and Woodland Baptist College had flourished briefly in Jonesboro from 1902 to 1911. Despite the tradition of Baptist education in Northeastern Arkansas and Watters' diligent efforts, there was to be no revival of Jonesboro Baptist College. Yet, Watters had not failed entirely. His dramatic appeal for Baptist education inspired others, notably H. E. Williams.

In 1941, Williams, the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Pocahontas, led in the establishment of Williams Baptist University (originally Southern Baptist College) in that town. For several years Williams had been building support for such a venture and in the spring of 1941 when he learned of the availability of a suitable building he pressed forward with an organizational meeting. On June 10, 1941, several hundred people from Northeast Arkansas and Southeast Missouri gathered in Pocahontas to establish a college. Among those in attendance were alumni of Jonesboro Baptist College and Maynard Academy. The new college, which opened on September 10, 1941, was in a very real sense the descendent of the earlier colleges. Indeed, Williams Baptist University ultimately inherited the large library of the Jonesboro school and the first dean of the University was an alumnus of Maynard Academy.

For five years the University experienced steady growth at Pocahontas, but on December 26, 1946, the administration building with much valuable equipment was destroyed by fire. The University was then moved to Walnut Ridge.

A milestone was reached in 1948 when the Arkansas Baptist State Convention voted to include the University in its budget. The ABSC officially adopted Williams as a member of its family of institutions in 1968; the University is now owned and operated by the Convention.

WBU became a four-year institution in 1984. Its name was changed to Williams Baptist College in 1991, and in 2018, it became Williams Baptist University.

H.E. Williams served as President for thirty-two years and was succeeded in 1973 by the second president of WBU, D. Jack Nicholas. In 1991, Jimmy A. Millikin assumed the Presidency of the University. In 1993, Gary C. Huckabay became the fourth President of Williams Baptist University. Jerol B. Swaim's tenure as President began in July 1995. Prior to his selection as the University's fifth president, Swaim had served at Williams for more than thirty years as Professor of History and Academic Dean. In 2012, Tom Jones became the sixth president of the University.

R. Stanton Norman began service in 2018 as the seventh president of WBU.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROGRAM

Purpose

This catalog is designed to facilitate a student's progress toward the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice. Williams Baptist University has specific rules and regulations for the program which must be followed to obtain the degree. This document explains those policies and procedures, which are subject to change and can be affected by changes in the policies of Williams Baptist University. University-wide policies have priority over the policies in this catalog.

Introduction

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice offers an in-depth scientific study of crime, criminal behavior, and the response by the United States justice system to these problems. Throughout this degree program the student will study theories and applications of criminal justice, corrections, and criminology. Upon completion of the degree program the student will have gained understanding in criminal procedure, the adjudication process, ethical issues, forensic science, police administration, and knowledge regarding current trends in criminal justice.

This program was developed with the objective of meeting the needs for quality instruction and knowledge being given to those professionals already in their career fields, or those who have a strong interest in a career in public safety, such as law enforcement or corrections. Keeping this objective in mind, the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice is being offered exclusively online through Williams Baptist University in an effort to clear roadblocks from the paths of those professionals already working in their chosen career fields. Offering the program online gives the student flexibility to complete coursework, regardless of his or her personal work schedule.

Curriculum Objectives

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program offers a liberal arts basis and was designed to meet the certification standards established by the American Criminal Justice Association.

Upon completion of the program, students will:

Program Administration

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program is administered by Williams Baptist University. The Vice President for Academic Affairs, Criminal Justice Advisory Board, Faculty Boards, and the Program Director oversees the program to ensure quality. The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice Director is the key administrative officer for the program. The Director chairs the CJ Advisory Board and serves as the central contact for matters regarding program policies. The CJ Director reports to the Dean of Online and Graduate Studies, who reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. All program changes or modifications must be first approved by the Academic Affairs Committee, as described in section 20.3.5.1 of the Williams Baptist University Employee Handbook.

Admissions

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program is a unique program to Williams Baptist University, and because of this the admissions process is specific for the program. All applicants wishing to attend Williams Baptist University must complete an Application for Admission.

An applicant applying to the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program must be eighteen years of age and should be employed in a career field of criminal justice, such as: law enforcement, corrections, security, the legal field, or a similarly related field. If the applicant does not meet the aforementioned requirements, then they must have a well-prepared career plan that can be articulated in writing.

Applicants who are not currently employed in a related criminal justice field will need to submit:

- 1) A written letter, of not less than 300 words, stating why the applicant wants to enroll in the program and their career plan, and
- 2) Three (3) letters of reference. An optional personal interview with the applicant may be required at the request of the Program Director or University Administration.

Transfer Students

Any student who has attended a college or university must submit the following:

- Official copies of transcripts from all colleges and universities attended.
- An official high school transcript and official ACT or SAT score report if the applicant has fewer than 24 transferable credit hours.

Transfer students may transfer no more than 66 semester credit hours as per Williams Baptist University policy. For students applying to the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program, they may transfer up to a maximum of 15 semester credit hours of courses equivalent to the major required courses.

Readmission of Former Students

A previously enrolled student in good academic standing in a degree program may re-enter Williams after absence of a full fall or spring semester. An Application for Re-Admission must be submitted and the application fee is waived.

Any student applying for re-admission to the University must have met any outstanding financial obligations to Williams and be current on all student loans. Official transcripts from each college or university attended since the last enrollment at Williams must also be submitted.

Students Living On Campus

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program is entirely online for the purpose of allowing students currently working in the field of Criminal Justice to complete the program. It is common knowledge that professionals in the field of Criminal Justice work irregular and varying hours and would not have the luxury of attending courses on the WBU campus.

Students living on campus may take Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program major courses as electives, with prior approval from the student's current academic program director, academic advisor, and the criminal justice program director.

Course Requirements

Course Load

Courses for the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program are offered in 8-week terms. Since a normal fall or spring semester is 16 weeks long, each semester will be offered in two parts for students enrolled in online Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program, e.g., fall I, fall II, spring I, and spring II. To better accommodate students who are currently employed in their profession, there will be one 8-week summer term as well.

The normal course load for a full-time student is 12-15 credit hours per a full semester, i.e., fall, spring, with 6 credit hours being the normal course load for the summer term. Since this program is broken into two 8-week semesters per fall and spring semesters, a normal course load for a full-time student would be 6 or more credit hours taken per sub-8-week term; therefore, the student would earn a minimum of 12 credit hours per fall and spring semesters, and 6 credit hours during the summer term. This would allow the student to satisfy most financial aid requirements. Students are encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office with questions regarding financial aid and this program. The Office of Financial Aid at WBU can be contacted at <https://williamsbu.edu/financial-aid-scholarships/>.

The normal course load for a part-time student is 9 or less credit hours per a full semester, i.e., fall and spring, or 3 credit hours for summer. Since this program is broken into two 8-week semesters per fall and spring semesters, a normal course load for a part-time student would be 3-6 credit hours taken per sub-8-week semester; therefore, the student would earn a minimum of 9 or less credit hours per fall and spring semesters.

Program Credit Hour Requirements

Students completing a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program at WBU will complete a minimum of 120 credit hours. The general degree requirements are:

- a) 120 semester credit hours passed for program completion
- b) 45 semester credit hours in major required courses as listed in this catalog
- c) A minimum of 45 semester credit hours in general education courses
- d) Minimum 30 semester hours of upper-division course work (3000 and above) taken at WBU
- e) Up to 15 semester hours of prior professional experience/internship electives
- f) Up to 15 semester hours of accepted/transfer electives
- g) Minimum of 2.0 cumulative grade point average
- h) Minimum of 2.0 grade scored in all major required courses
- i) Fulfillment of all University and major requirements

Academic advising is a shared responsibility between the student, academic advisor, and when needed, Program Director. After a student has been admitted to the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice program, the student will meet with the Academic Advisor before registering for courses. Correspondence via e-mail with the Academic Advisor is an acceptable method for off- campus students.

The following bullets outline the responsibilities of each party.

Academic Advisor Responsibilities

- Explain University core curriculum and academic major requirements.
- Explain graduation requirements.

- Evaluate transfer credit appeals, petitions for re-admission, and all other grievances.

WBU Course and Grade Policies

Academic Probation and Suspension Policy

The following other general rules apply to grading policy and undergraduate students' academic standing with WBU. The calculation of cumulative GPA shall be based on all course work applied to the degree, including any courses taken as a non-degree student. The following is WBU's policy on Academic Probation and Suspension:

Students attempting less than 60 hours of credit are placed on academic probation if their cumulative GPA is less than 1.5 on hours attempted at WBU. Students placed on academic probation whose GPA on work attempted the following semester is less than 1.65 will be suspended for one semester.

Students attempting at least 60 semester hours of credit will be placed on academic probation any time the cumulative GPA falls below 2.00. A student will be academically suspended if the following applies:

- A cumulative GPA of 1.65 or less on 60 through 75 attempting hours.
- A cumulative GPA of 1.80 or less on 76 through 89 attempted hours.
- A cumulative GPA of 1.90 or less on 90 attempted hours and above.

Students who enroll under academic probation will be suspended after one semester if their current GPA on hours attempted at WBU falls below a 1.5.

The purpose of academic suspension is to provide students with time away from the University to examine and re-evaluate their academic problems and goals. Students who are suspended must apply for readmission.

Grade Policies

The Williams Baptist University Grading System is based on a 4.0 absolute scale as follows:

A – 4 points per semester hour

B – 3 points per semester hour

C – 2 points per semester hour

D – 1 point per semester hour

F – 0 points per semester hour

All students must maintain a 2.0 cumulative grade point average. The cumulative GPA is the numeric average of the letter grades received in courses.

$$\text{GPA} = \text{Total Grade Points} / \text{Total Graded Credits Attempted}.$$

Retakes and Incomplete Grades

Retaking Courses

A student may not retake any course more than twice during the course of the degree program, regardless of whether the need for a retake results from a low grade, an incomplete, or a course withdrawal. Extreme exceptions can be petitioned to the Program Director.

A student who receives a letter grade for a course that is too low to qualify for credit (less than a 2.0 for major courses) may retake the course once. The grade in the last course taken will be used to calculate the student's overall GPA. To retake a course, the student must re-enroll and pay tuition and fees for the course again.

Incompletes

An Incomplete may be granted when the student has successfully completed 75 percent or more of the course and is prevented from completing the class by circumstances beyond their control. The course instructor has the discretion as to whether to grant an incomplete, and students should be aware that not all faculty will grant Incompletes.

Students in online courses should be aware that they will not have access to the course shell after the ending date of the course; therefore, Incompletes are not available for work that must be completed using the course shell.

If the instructor agrees to grant an Incomplete, the student must make arrangements to complete the remaining coursework with the original instructor within three months. The student may not “sit in” on the class in subsequent semesters.

Once the coursework is completed, the instructor will change the grade to a letter grade. If the coursework is not completed within three months, the Incomplete will automatically change to an F on the student’s transcript.

Retroactive Grade Changes

Students will not be permitted to request grade changes for courses in which a final letter grade has been received except as a result of instructor error or as otherwise warranted through the academic grievance process. A student may not enter into an agreement with an instructor to retroactively change a final letter grade based on work completed by the student after the course has ended.

Drops and Withdrawals

Deadlines for dropping a course are set by the Office of the Registrar and posted on the Academic Calendar for each semester. It is the responsibility of the student to know the important dates during the academic semester. The dates can be found on the Academic Calendar in this catalog.

In order to withdraw from a course, current students must complete a Withdrawal Form from the Registrar’s Office. Students who withdraw before the beginning of the final examination period will have a W recorded on the permanent record. A student who withdraws without following this required procedure will be recorded as having withdrawn unofficially and each grade will be recorded as an F, and no fees will be refunded. Refunds for withdrawals will be made according to the Refund of Fees Schedule as follows:

- During the first full week of class – 100% Refund
- After the first full week of class – Students are not eligible for a refund.

Student Complaint/Grievance Policy

Williams Baptist University strives to provide effective and positive services and experiences. Online student may register their concerns and/or complaints regarding WBU personnel, services, regulations, or other perceived nonconformities to the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

Complaints must be filed in writing for an official investigation to occur. The official investigation may result in a disciplinary hearing or other appropriate measures to ameliorate the complaint.

Graduation Procedures

Williams Baptist University's graduation ceremony is held at the end of the Spring term. If a student graduates during the Summer or Fall terms, the student is invited to participate in the Spring commencement ceremony in May. The student is required to meet with his or her Academic Advisor at least four eight-week terms before the student intends to graduate, in order to apply for graduation and schedule to take the Educational Testing Service (ETS) Major Field Test (MFT) in Criminal Justice. The ETS MFT is used for program evaluation purposes and, although required for graduation, will not count for or against the student's GPA.

Once the Academic Advisor has ensured that all program requirements have been met, less what the student must complete during his or her last term, the student will be able to file an Intent to Graduate Form with the Registrar's Office. It is required that this process be completed at the beginning of the full semester in which the student intends to graduate.

Student Code of Conduct

Williams Baptist University holds high ideals and expectations of each student who chooses to join its community. In upholding these ideals, Williams proclaims the values of the worth of the individual; personal integrity; critical, independent thinking; self-discipline; and community responsibility and accountability and seeks to experience the growth and fulfillment which characterize a dynamic environment. University regulations go into effect when an individual matriculates and continues until the time of graduation or withdrawal. By the act of registration, the student agrees to accept the standards and regulations reflected in this document and other publications of WBU, such as the Student Handbook, found at: <http://eagle.wbcoll.edu/handbook/Student.pdf>.

Academic Integrity

Williams considers cheating to be the basis for disciplinary action. Students are to avoid giving or receiving information on tests or examinations, using any unauthorized aids on tests or examinations, or submitting someone else's work for their own. Faculty members are encouraged to be alert to cheating. Faculty will initiate the disciplinary action appropriate for all acts of observed dishonesty, as well as file a report of the incident and intended disciplinary action with the Academic Dean. Any appeal by the student should be made in writing to the Academic Dean.

If the Academic Dean stipulates, the student may appear before the Academic Dean and the instructor. A written report of this hearing and decision will become a part of the student's permanent academic and/or disciplinary file. An appeal of this action by either the student or the instructor will follow the appeals process as stipulated in the Student Handbook, Disciplinary Procedures and Sanctions.

Notification of Rights under FERPA for Postsecondary Institutions

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) afford eligible students certain rights with respect to their education records. (An “eligible student” under FERPA is a student who is 18 years of age or older or who attends a postsecondary institution.) These rights include:

- 1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days after the day Williams Baptist University receives a request for access. A student should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The school official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the school official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA.

A student who wishes to ask the school to amend a record should write the school official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed and specify why it should be changed.

If the school decides not to amend the record as requested, the school will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student's right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to provide written consent before the university discloses personally identifiable information (PII) from the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

The school discloses education records without a student's prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by Williams Baptist University in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person serving on the board of trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee. A school official also may include a volunteer or contractor outside of Williams Baptist University who performs an institutional service or function for which the school would otherwise use its own employees and who is under the direct control of the school with respect to the use and maintenance of PII from education records, such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent or a student volunteering to assist another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for Williams Baptist University.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the [School] to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202

FERPA permits the disclosure of PII from students' education records, without consent of the student, if the disclosure meets certain conditions found in §99.31 of the FERPA regulations. Except for disclosures to school officials, disclosures related to some judicial orders or lawfully issued subpoenas, disclosures of directory information, and disclosures to the student, §99.32 of FERPA regulations requires the institution to record the disclosure. Eligible students have a right to inspect and review the record of disclosures. A postsecondary institution may disclose PII from the education records without obtaining prior written consent of the student –
